The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, handicap, or age (provided that the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), and because all or parts of the applicant's income is derived from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The Federal Agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this credit is the Federal Trade Commission. If a person believes he or she was denied assistance in violation of this law, they should contact the Federal Trade Commission, Washington, DC 20580.

CREDIT AUTHORIZATION

I hereby authorize the servicing agent on behalf of the CEDC Revolving Loan Fund, to conduct credit investigations and verifications and to obtain credit bureau reports (including consumer and/or business credit reports) on the undersigned and any other entity of which I am a principal.

In addition, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary, I also expressly authorize the release of any financial/organizational information or data from third party sources (Banks, Financial Institutions, Insurance Companies, Attorneys, Accountants, Credit Unions, etc.) to the Coös Economic Development Corporation upon its written or verbal request.

Financial Privacy Policy

As an organization entrusted with sensitive information, we respect the privacy of our customers and are committed to treating customer information responsibly. The following is our Financial Privacy Policy.

What Information We Collect

We may collect “nonpublic personal information” about you from the following sources:

- Information you provide us, such as on applications or other loan account forms
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others
- Information we receive from third parties such as credit bureaus

“Nonpublic personal information” is nonpublic information about you that we obtain in connection with providing a financial product or service to you. For example, nonpublic personal information includes information regarding your loan balance and payment history.

What Information We Disclose

Under Federal law, we may share information about our experiences or transactions with you or your company (such as your loan balance and payment history with us) with companies related to us by common control or ownership (“affiliates”). However, where state law may be more restrictive, we will abide by the more restrictive requirements.

In order to expedite the processing and servicing of financial products on your behalf, we may need to disclose nonpublic personal information about you to “nonaffiliated third parties: (i.e., third parties that are not members of our corporate family) in certain circumstances. However when we do, we will require them to protect the confidentiality of your information. For example, we may disclose nonpublic personal information about you to third parties such as attorneys or appraisers, if applicable; or to government entities as required by law or in response to subpoenas; and to reputable credit reporting agencies (“credit bureaus”).

If you decide to close your loan account(s) or become an inactive customer, we will continue to adhere to the privacy policies and practices described in this notice.

Our Security Procedures

We will always maintain control over the confidentiality of our customer information, which includes having physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with all applicable standards. We will permit only authorized employees, who are trained in the proper handling of customer information, to have access to that information in order to provide you with quality products and superior service. All of our operational and data processing systems are in a secure environment that protects your account information from being accessed by third parties.
